IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of:

21 months.

The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

The Court recognizes the Bureau of Prisons preference for keeping inmates within 500 miles of their home for visitation purposes. In this instance, the situation is such that visitation will not be an issue for the defendant's family and the Court would recommend that the defendant be placed in the Western United States. Due to existing medical concerns, the Court would further recommend that the defendant be placed at Lompoc, California or the Camp at Terre Haute, Indiana. Specifically, the Court requests that the defendant NOT be placed at any facility located in Michigan, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky or West

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.

- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
